TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

[TELEGRAPHIC REPORTS FOR THE PRESS ASSOCIATION.]

Entered according to act of Congress, in the year 1861, by J. S. Thrasher, in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of the Confederate States of the Northern District of Georgia.

The Advance on Petersburg.

RICHMOND, June 10.—The enemy, five thousand strong, under Kautz, made a desperate attempt to capture Petersburg yesterday. They advanced in two columns. After several assaults upon the works Southeast of the city, which were repulsed, they succeeded in flanking about two hundred militia, causing them to retreat with a loss of six killed and thirty wounded, including some of the best citizens. The Yankees then advanced to the suburbs, but at the opportune moment Graham's Battery opened upon them from Resevoir Hill, Dearing's cavalry at the same time charging them. The enemy wheeled and fled in great confusion. The column which advanced on the Blandford road was repulsed by Sturdivant's Battery, which arrived in time. Our reinforcements pursued the Yankees several miles.

The residence of Timothy Rives was sacked and burnt and Rives carried off.

Rev. Wm. Hall, of the Washington artillery was also captured.

From Georgia.

ATLANTA, June 10.—The enemy was developed in force yesterday, in our front at Acworth and on our extreme right East of the Railroad towards Roswell. Skirmishing this afternoon occurred in front of Gen. Hood's corps. Prisoners report the Bridge at Etowah rebuilt by the Yankees and trains running to Acworth. Sherman avoids every effort to bring him to an engagement outside of his breastworks. Captured Yankees say he has orders not to risk a general engagement.

Gov. Brown returned from the front yesterday, where he has been with General Johnson.

Later from the North.

RICHMOND, June 10.—Northern dates to the 7th received. Grant's dispatches say the enemy attacked the Federal lines Saturday night and were everywhere repulsed. Everything is going on well. The correspondent of the Inquirer admits a loss of five thousand at Cold Harbor on the 3d. Gen. Tyler lost a foot, and seven Colonels were wounded. Caucusing at Baltimore indicates the nomination of Lincoln and Hamlin.

Gold 93¼.

Sherman, on the 12th, at noon, telegraphed from Ackworth, saying that he was in possession of the Railroad, and within one mile of Marietta.

European News.

RICHMOND, June 10.—European advices to the 25th received.

Pelessier, Duke of Malakoff, is dead. The news of the great battles in Virginia caused profound sensation in England. The Times and Star regard Grant's success as indecisive. The Post expressed the conviction that the Federals sustained a crushing defeat. The Herald and Globe pronounce the advance on Richmond a failure.

[SECOND DISPATCH.]

RICHMOND, June 10.—The steam rams built by Laird have been purchased by the English government.

The crew of the schooner J. L. Gerrity have been discharged.

Liverpool cotton market steady.

Congressional.

RICHMOND, June 10.—The Senate concurred in the House amendments to the bill to establish a bureau of foreign supplies.

The Senate again rejected the bill authorizing army reporters of the Press Association to purchase rations and forage.

Most of the day was spent in secret session.

The House passed Senate bill for the relief of States holding old currency, and disagreed to Senate amendment. A Committee of Conference will be the result.

Congress will probably adjourn to-morrow.

From Mobile--Northern News, &c.

MOBILE, June 10.—A special dispatch from Senatobia dated 9th says that Canby has been appointed a Division commander. Banks, Steele, and Rosecrans retain their respective commands.

Mower is reported to have defeated Polignac on the 18th ult., on Yellow Bayou. Confederate loss 800; Federal loss 150.

Shelby is moving on Southwestern Missouri with twenty four hundred men.

Six thousand infantry have been ordered South from Missouri to reinforce Canby.

A Raid is said to have left Memphis for Corinth.

Gold in Memphis 225.

A Washington dispatch of the 2d says thirty thousand wounded have been brought to the hospitals there.

Fremont Conditionally Accepts the Cleveland Nomination.

RICHMOND, June 10.—Fremont's letter accepting the Cleveland nomination declares that Lincoln's administration is a military dictatorship without unity of action or vigor of execution. He says that if an acceptable man is nominated at Baltimore he will not be a candidate, but if Lincoln is nominated there is no alternative but to organize every element of opposition to prevent the misfortune of his re-election.

The Herald says Fremont's position secures the defeat of Lincoln.

From the Valley of Virginia.

MOUNTAIN TOP, June 10.—Enemy advanced again to-day with cavalry, but were driven back by Imboden. The infantry column on each side of the railroad advanced to Fishersville, burning the railroad track. All quiet.

From Richmond.

RICHMOND, June 10.—No change in the situation of the two armies. All quiet to-day.

☞ Business Notice.—The expenses attending the publication of the PROGRESS are enormous and have to be paid promptly, and we must do a cash business or none at all. We must demand cash from all save those business men of the city who have accounts with the office, and parties at a distance are expected to remit promptly when bills are sent. We have no time to collect bills and don't want to make any charges. There never was a better time to pay debts than the present, and all who owe us are requested and expected to pay at once.

FRENCH BROAD LANDS FOR SALE.
GLEN CANNON FARM, TRANSYLVANIA COUNTY, N. C.

THIS FARM LIES ON THE FRENCH BROAD River, within five miles of Brevard, the county town, and is extensively known as the best tract of land, and the most productive property in the county, and probably in Western North Carolina. In salubrity of climate, beauty of scenery, location and fertility of soil, it is unsurpassed by any property in the State. It consists of 1,310 acres of land, 400 of which are first quality French Broad bottom, all of which, with the exception of 40 or 50 acres, are cleared and under a high state of cultivation, thoroughly drained and excellent fences, most of which are new lath fencing on locust posts. 3,675 bushels of corn were gathered from 28 acres of this land with ordinary cultivation and without any fertilizer ever having been applied to it. Ninety acres are laid down in the most approved mode, to the grasses and afford heavy crops of hay and excellent pastures. The balance of the tract, say 910 acres, is the heaviest and best timbered mountain land.

The whole tract is under one boundary and may be subdivided advantageously, there being four very eligible and beautiful building sites, with bottom land attached.

On the premises is a good cottage residence, of five rooms, each with a fire place, kitchen, servant houses, ice house, storeroom, dairy, smokehouse, framed corn crib, capacity, 3,500 bushels ear corn, one double and five single negro houses, two tenant settlements, an excellent saw and grist mill, all built within thirteen years by the proprietor. The saw mill is driven by an overshot wheel of 28 feet in diameter, and is located at one of the most beautiful water falls of about 100 feet in height and equal to 150 horse power, and only fifteen minutes walk from the residence.

This property for this year is under rent to Gen. Smith, of East Tennessee, who will give any information desired during the absence of the proprietor.

The price for these lands is ($160,000) one hundred and sixty thousand dollars. Payment may be made in Confederate stock at the market value at Columbia, S. C., at time of sale.

With the above property can be purchased twelve remarkably prime and orderly negroes, being a picked gang accustomed to the culture of the farm in the most careful and cleanly style. Among them are four men, three women and five children. The men are excellent plowmen, mowers, cradlers, &c., one is a good carpenter. Of the women, one is an excellent cook and spinner. The children are from 4 to 9 years of age. Also the farm tools, consisting in part of plows, harrows, horse rake, field roller, corn planters, sorgho mill, molasses boilers, cornsheller, straw cutters, timber carts, &c., &c. Also the stock of highly improved cattle.

[illegible]

[illegible] should be [illegible] people [illegible] a perfect reign of terror in this State for the next two years, for [illegible] the Home Guard, Militia Officers, [illegible] and others [illegible] that they ought to be in the army. The fact is we [illegible] a man so thoroughly [illegible] and [illegible] in his desire to have everybody in the army as Gov. Vance. We [illegible] will [illegible] with [illegible] to the people, [illegible] that he was the first man to assure Mr. Davis, officially, that there was "discontent and disloyalty in North Carolina, and that he [illegible] largely responsible, more responsible than any other living man in fact, for the suspension of the writ of habeas corpus in North Carolina. President Davis was understood to be opposed to the suspension until Gov. Vance assured him that certain demonstrations on the part of the Conservatives of North Carolina had to be put down. What we here say is fully proven by the letters of Gov. Vance to the President. And further than this, it is shrewdly suspected that one great cause of the sudden conversion of Gov. Vance to Destructiveism is certain promises that have been made relative to the succession to the Presidency—that is, that if he would secure the moral support of North Carolina to certain contemplated despotic measures, his claims for the Presidency should be considered by the "patriots and property holders." Gov. Vance went over to the Destructives, secretly, at least eighteen months ago, and at Wilkesboro' he made a public confession of the faith that was in him. We hope all true Conservatives will let him go in peace.

Hear it, ye Conservatives of North Carolina, every original secessionist in the State is a zealous supporter of Vance; and hear it, ye battle-scarred veterans, whose prowess has made every field from Bethel to Spottsylvania glorious, every bomb-proof officer in the army and every pigeon-hole favorite at home is for Gov. Vance. These favorites—these "patriots and property holders"—support Vance because he is expected to shield them from the dangers of a war they helped to bring on; but the honest masses are put in, many of them leaving bleeding hearts and famishing children at home. The masses of the people, who are opposed to perpetual war and in favor of an early and honorable peace, will vote for Mr. Holden, for Vance has not only shown himself incapacitated for the office he holds, but he has exhibited a faithlessness and want of firmness that is disgusting to all sincere men.

Let true Conservatives remember that every original secessionist and Destructive in the State supports Vance, and that the more odious they are to the public, the more zealous they are in their advocacy of the claims of his Excellency and the more bitter in their denunciations of Mr. Holden and all true Conservatives. Let the Conservatives remember that if they help elect Vance they help to pull down and defeat their own party and assist in achieving a Destructive triumph. The Destructive leaders have pledged the support of the rank and file of their party to Vance with the promised understanding that if elected he is to be their man and the result is to heralded as their triumph, and the overthrow of Conservatism in North Carolina. Let the people be not deceived in this matter. Even now, in utter disregard of all the rights of the States, the organ of the Governor, the so-called Conservative, claims that militia and home guard officers and others are only out of the service by the grace and favor of Gov. Vance—that the action of the Legislature is only advisory, and that Gov. Vance can put in or keep out at pleasure. Are our people prepared for any such monstrous doctrine as this? Are State Legislatures to be ignored, State lines obliterated and State Rights to become a by-word? Many State officers, in their ignorant simplicity, think that they are indebted to the Legislature, and not Gov. Vance, for their exemption. But is not this extraordinary claim set up just at this time to be held over these State officers in order to influence their action in the August election? We say to the people that if Governor Vance claims the right to put in or keep out State officers, at pleasure, as his organ says he does, the sooner they elect a man who claims no such power the better. Why ask the Legislature to name such State officers as they would exempt if the whole matter was with the Governor? There never were more corrupt means being used to secure the election of any man than are now being used to force the people to vote for Vance.

Public Sentiment.

Extract from a letter dated

Rutherfordton, June 7.

"We are all for Holden up here and when August comes we will give him a majority worth talking about."

Petersburg.

The Yankees made a bold attempt to [illegible] the [illegible] of [illegible] Gen. Beauregard [illegible] ing [illegible] towards the James river. We have not yet the particulars of the fight, but the loss sustained by the city militia—six killed and thirty wounded—attest the fact that the struggle was sharp and desperate, and that these Reserves acquitted themselves admirably. The skirmishing was on the outskirts of the city, and our small force that first encountered the enemy was pressed back by overwhelming numbers, but reinforcements came up in time to prevent the vandals from entering the city.

The gunboats of the enemy were also reported firing on Fort Clifton, some four miles below the city, during the day. We learn from a gentleman from Petersburg, now in this city, that the enemy were reported fortifying on Gatlin's Hill, a commanding position not far from Fort Clifton, when he left there, from which it seems that Butler and Gilmore will attempt to dig into Petersburg as Grant did into Vicksburg. Of their success, however, we have no fears, as long as Beauregard is in command. He kept Gilmore out of Charleston and he will keep him out of Petersburg.

The force that made the effort to dash into Petersburg on Thursday consisted of cavalry, we suppose, and was thought to be three or four thousand strong.

If there ever was a fifth wheel to a wagon or a useless piece of furniture in an establishment, that fifth wheel and useless piece of furniture is to be found in the Treasury Department and in the person of Mr. Memminger. With power to have any number of men detailed, and to employ all the spinsters in the Confederacy if it so please him, Mr. Memminger is a "dead broke" individual, without a dime, and the employees of the government clamorous for money which they have honestly earned. Oh that Mr. Memminger would resign.

The Examiner says:

The Confederate States Treasury, for the first time in the history of the government, is in a state of constipation. No money to buy anything or pay anybody with. The salaries of all the employees of the department, great and small, for last month are yet unpaid, except the salary of Mr. Memminger. Of course there is great inconvenience, if not actual suffering among those who are thus obliged to wait the pleasure of the Secretary in the trifling matter of their pay.

For the Progress,]

The Triumvirate.

Mr. Pennington:—I think about as far back as eighteen months ago or not so long there was an article by the same name as this appeared in the Standard. The triumvirate then was the Hon. A. H. Stephens, Z. B Vance and W. W. Holden. It is said by many that Gov. Vance's name should be stricken out. I am of the same opinion. It is useless for me to enter into a detail of what Gov. Vance has done that he should be read out of the true Conservative party. The people know and therefore there is no use for me to try and make his acts and deeds plainer. Now, Mr. Pennington, if the name of Gov. Vance has to be stricken out of this triumvirate, who shall we put in his stead? What man is there that has been unflinching in his duty and always been true to his friends and party? Where will we find a man of this sort? If the Vice-President and W. W. Holden are still right they must be two of this triumvirate. Now there are two men in the Confederate States that are head and shoulders above any of the rest—Edwin G. Reade and Joseph E. Brown. It is very hard for me or any other person to decide between these two. Gov. Brown's message has immortalized him, while the speech of Mr. Reade in the Senate has forever made him one of the most loved sons of the Old North State. How hard then is it to decide between these two great and good men. Mr. Pennington, we will leave you to decide between them for I can see no difference. The Vice-President has always been right and his name will remain upon the roll of fame for generations unborn to revere and praise. Uncle Billy for the last three years has been the defender of North Carolina and her sons. His unflinching devotion to the liberty of the citizen as well as his State has made him the greatest man in North Carolina.

Now, Mr. Pennington, I think I will step over the regular rules of the triumvirate and put in four—Hon. A. H. Stephens, Gov. Brown, Edwin G. Reade and Uncle Billy W. Holden. These constitute the Triumvirate of our Sunny South. These men have never been but one thing and they always will be the truest sons to their country and its people. Here we will leave them and may they never depart from their principles as Z. B. has done.

A Conservative After the Straitest Sect.

Gen. Winder Gone to Georgia.—We find the following in the Examiner of Thursday:

Brig. Gen. John H. Winder, recently commanding the military department of Richmond, and assigned to the post of Goldsboro', N. C., has subsequently received additional orders instructing him to report to Americus, Ga., with the assumption of the command of the forces at Americus and the prison post at Andersonville. This is a more important command than that to which Gen. Winder was first ordered, including, as it does, the care of the twenty odd thousand prisoners of war held at Andersonville. General Winder's staff and attaches, who accompanied him from Richmond, report with him at the last post.—Andersonville is the grand depot of all the prisoners taken in the Southern Confederacy, south of Richmond, and the Libby prison is the receiving depot of those captured north of Richmond, but with Andersonville as their destination. Col. A. W. Person was in command at Andersonville previous to the ordering of Gen. Winder there, and it is probable he will remain in charge under the command of the General.

Brig. Gen. Baker has been assigned to the post of Goldsboro', vice Gen. Winder ordered to Americus. Between Gen. G. W. Smith, in command of the Georgia reserves, and Gen. Winder a warm intimacy exists, and we anticipate the best results from the juxtaposition of their commands.

There was a public meeting at the Court House yesterday afternoon, at which various suggestions and resolutions were discussed as to the best means of organising the remaining militia for local defence. We believe the meeting adjourned to meet again on Monday night.

PROGRESS OF THE WAR.

VIRGINIA.

[From the Dispatch of Thursday.]

The storm of battle which raged so furiously [illegible] in the immediate vicinity of Richmond has been succeeded by a comparative calm, and matters are now almost as quiet as when the contending armies were seventy miles away. Grant has evidently become tired of "butting" against the rebel fortifications, and what he failed to effect by brute force he now essays to accomplish by strategy. Consequently we find him stealthily moving away from our front, and sliding down the south side of the Chickahominy, endeavoring, if possible, to reach the James, with a view of co-operating with Butler, who is still pent up between that river and the Appomattox. The uncommon stillness that prevailed along the lines yesterday has given way to the belief that the Yankees were engaged in burying their dead, a privilege which they asked of Gen. Lee under a flag of truce.

Notwithstanding the generally received opinion to the contrary, it may be that Grant will again offer battle on the memorable scenes of Cold Harbor. He measured strength with the Confederates there last week, and failed, it is true; but as it amounted to only a check, with a heavy loss of his numbers, he had the hardihood to telegraph the Yankee Secretary of War of continued success, with the object of ensuring the renomination of Lincoln at the Baltimore Convention, held yesterday. He doubtless feared to risk another fight until that purpose was consummated, for a decisive victory for the Confederates would have destroyed Lincoln's prospects completely. The Convention over and the renomination effected, it is not impossible that active hostilities may be immediately resumed.

Skirmishing continues at intervals on the lines Some of our boys say that one of these skirmishes would have been called a battle twelve months ago.

FROM BOTTOM'S BRIDGE.

Some firing is reported to have occurred at Bottom's Bridge yesterday, but without any important result. The situation at that point remains unchanged. There is probably no truth in the rumor of the capture of a portion of Henley's battalion

FROM THE SOUTHSIDE.

There is no news of a renewal of active operations in Chesterfield county. On Tuesday a brisk little skirmish occurred on the south side of the Appomattox, between a portion of our forces and a party of mounted Yankee cavalry, (white and black,) who attempted to drive in our pickets, but were themselves repulsed, with the loss of a few wounded, which they succeeded in carrying off. No injury was done to our men. The Yankee force numbered about 150. On the same day a party of Yankees advanced from Temple's up as far as Green's farm, and after committing some depredations upon private property retired.

The enemy are erecting a "look out" below Fort Clifton, having already elevated it some distance above the tops of the trees. The object is to command a clear view of the surrounding country.

FROM THE VALLEY.

All sorts of rumors prevailed yesterday with regard to the situation of affairs at Staunton.—It was stated that a dispatch had been received asserting that the enemy had burnt all the government storehouses, depots and public buildings in the place; but we could trace this report to no reliable source.

On the other hand it was confidently stated that the Yankees had not yet occupied Staunton. We have every reason to believe that this is an error.

We heard last night, in a perfectly reliable quarter, that the enemy had left Staunton and gone in the direction of Lexington. In this connection it may be stated that a letter from a lady in Lexington, dated the 3d instant, mentions a report that Averill, at the head of a large cavalry force, was within three miles of the place.—There was probably no foundation for this statement, though Crook, who was reported advancing by the Warm Springs road, was at Millboro, in Bath county, on Monday last.

Lexington is in Rockbridge county, 146 miles West of Richmond, on an elevated bank of the West side of North river, and is the seat of Washington College and the Virginia Military Institute.

Of affairs in the Valley the Lynchburg Virginian of the 7th says:

News of a battle near Staunton was received here Sunday night. Yesterday morning quid nuncs were busy circulating wild and extravagant rumors of defeat, route, ruin, &c., to the Confederates. We have reason to believe, however, that these were highly exaggerated. That our arms met with a reverse is, we think, certain, but we do not believe it of a serious character. The loss of Gen. Wm. E. Jones, who was killed, is probably the severest disaster we sustained.—He was a brave and gallant officer. General Vaughan, who succeeded Gen. Jones, telegraphed yesterday that we inflicted more loss on the enemy than we sustained, and that though being compelled by overpowering numbers to fall back, we lost nothing, but brought off all our artillery, wagons, &c. We were unable to learn the relative position of the two armies at a late hour last night. The general opinion was, however, that our forces had retreated to a position such of Staunton, and that that town had been occupied by the enemy. Definite information will doubtless be received this morning.

Col Aiken is reported killed, and General Vaughan slightly wounded.

[From the Lynchburg Republican, 7th,

THE FIGHT IN THE VALLEY.

By passengers from Charlottesville last night we obtain some meagre and unsatisfactory particulars of the fight in the Valley on Sunday last. The accounts state that the battle opened at 11 o'clock, a. m., on that day, at Piedmont, near New Hope, 11 miles northeast of Staunton, on the road leading from Port Republic to Waynesboro', and raged with intense fierceness until about 4 p. m. The enemy during this time made several desperate assaults upon our position, but were repulsed with loss. General Jones, commanding our forces, then assumed the offensive, but unfortunately in leading a charge was killed, his fall creating some confusion in our ranks and causing our left wing to give way, thus necessitating the retreat of the centre and right to prevent being assailed in the rear. Our troops fell back in good order to Waynesboro', about [illegible] miles distant from the battle-ground, where they now are in position to defend the mountain gaps.

Our loss in the fight is considerable, some estimating it as high as 400 killed, wounded and missing. The enemy's casualties are supposed to have been heavier than ours, from the fact that they were repulsed in each one of their assaults.

In addition to General Jones, we learn that Col. Aiken, of the 59th Tennessee regiment was killed; and General J. C. Vaughan slightly wounded. Gen. Imboden is reported missing, but this needs confirmation.

The Yankee troops were commanded by Gen. Hunter, and consisted of two divisions of infantry, Couch's and Sullivan's and four regiments of cavalry. Two of the infantry regiments are negroes.

It was reported yesterday, that Staunton was occupied by the enemy at 12 o'clock, Sunday night. This report we have reason to know was unfounded as telegraphic communication was open with the town up to 4 o'clock yesterday evening. It is higly probable, however, they are now in possession of the place, our forces having retired to this side some 9 miles. We await intelligence of the further movements of the enemy with interest, but we think the advance, while one of importance, if unchecked, will be staid in its progress before much damage is done.

From the Petersburg Express, Thursday.

FROM THE FRONT.

We are again enabled to report that profound quiet reigned along our lines in Chesterfield yesterday. Not a musket or field piece was discharged to break the dull monotony of the but recently exciting scene.

A couple of deserters came in night before last. One was from the naval branch of the enemy's service; the other a member of an Ohio regiment. These men represent that Butler has lately been reinforced, but to what extent they could not say. They also state that Butler's Headquarters are at the Bermuda Hundreds Wharf, on board a steamer, which is known in the army as the "Headquarters Boat."

The Yankees are still industriously engaged on the Observatory or Lookout, below Fort Clifton. It now overtops the tallest trees in the vicinity, and affords its occupants a good view of all the surrounding country, on both sides of the Appamattox. If it be within range, we would suggest to some of our expert artillerists, that it offers an excellent target for a good shot. We hope to hear that the timbers have been loosened in a day or two at farthest.

On the Prince George side of the Appomattox, the same quiet prevailed yesterday as in Chesterfield. Our gallant "new issue" are in the trenches, and doing good service. They begin to loop like veterans, and we have heard experienced and scientific military men say, that they have never seen men become better soldiers in the same length of time. We know that they perform all the duties required of them uncomplainingly, and under the admirable discipline and training of Col. F. H. Archer, their commander, they have become inured to the seeming hardships of camp, and now go through the routine with an ease and facility characteristic of veterans.

GEORGIA.

We have had no telegram from Georgia in several days, while our latest papers from Atlanta, are to the 7th. The Confederacy of the 7th says:

Our lines extend from Lost Mountain across the State road at Big Shanty, a station nine miles above Marietta. The enemy are in front of Big Shanty, and are industriously fortifying the Altoona Hills and other elevated positions between Acworth and the Etowah. Rumors to the effect that our army is falling back are premature, though such a movement may not be unlikely in the course of events. At present it is stationary and the enemy's advance is not perceptible. There was no fighting yesterday

From the Appeal.

THE FIGHT ON THE 27TH MAY.

From a letter, written by an officer acquainted with the facts, to prominent gentleman of this city, we learn that in the fight of the 27th ult., Howard's 4th army corps attempted to turn the right wing of our army, Cleburne's division, then temporarily reporting to Gen. Hood, who held the right. After a close and deadly fight, the enemy were repulsed at all points, but kept up a galling fire on our position. About 10 p. m., Granbury's Texas brigade charged the foe with the bayonet, and routed him completely, capturing the field of battle, the enemy's dead, seventy-two wounded, and one hundred and sixty unwounded, one thousand two hundred stand of arms, besides accoutrements and ammunition. About five hundred of the enemy were killed. The troops engaged were the whole of Granberry's brigade, the 8th and 19th Arkansas, consolidated, and other regiments of Govan's Arkansas brigade, the greater portion of Lowrey's Alabama and Mississippi brigade, the 4th Louisiana, of Quarles' brigade, and Key's and Shannon's batteries. Matthews' brigade held Granbury's line while he made the charge. Our killed, wounded and missing were four hundred and seventy-eight. The loss of the enemy could not have been less than three thousand. Capt. J. J. Hearne, Assistant Adjutant General of Granbury's brigade, and Adjutant Duprey, of the 8th and 19th Arkansas, were killed. As the enemy advanced upon Lowrey and Granbury, they exclaimed "Damn you, we've caught you without your logs at last."

Wise.—The candidates for the Legislature did not harangue the people, this week, at June Court, as has been the custom heretofore. The people should be left free and untrammelled to vote for whom they please, as all the candidates are well known, personally and politically. Stump speaking, and fair promises made to the people, amount to but very little these times.—Salem Press.

Perfectly right; and would it not be well for Gov. Vance to imitate the example of the candidates in Forsyth and come home and attend so the duties of his office? If ever there was a time when the people did not want to hear stump speeches this is the time.

The [illegible] battalion that has been on duty at Camp Holmes for some time past has been disbanded, we learn, and the most of the men assigned to various regiments in the field. These men are well drilled and there is no better material in the service. We learn they are all nearly for Mr Holden and not unfrequently enthusiastic in their demonstrations of approval of their favorite. Mr. Holden will get a large majority of the army vote, nearly all the private soldiers being for him.

Chatham County.—We call attention to the Card of Thos. B. Long, Esq., announcing himself as a candidate to represent the people of Chatham in the Senate of the next General Assembly of North Carolina. Mr. Long is a good Conservative and if elected will look well to the interests of his constituents.

Chatham County.—Mr. Pennington:—Please announce my name as a candidate to represent the people of Chatham in the next General Assembly of the State in the Senate.

Very respectfully,
June 11-d&wtd THOS. B. LONG.

To the Voters of Jones County.—Fellow Citizens and Soldiers:—Through the request of many friends in and out of the army, I announce myself a candidate for the office of Sheriff of your county. If you elect me, on the first Thursday in August next, I will discharge the duties of the office promptly, justly and impartially, and I hope, with that integrity which has characterised me as a soldier,

I am, respectfully,
Your friend and obd't serv't,
LAFAYETTE DILLAHUNT,
May 30-d&wtd Co. K, 63d Reg't N. C. C.

Randolph and Alamance.—The true Conservatives of Alamance and Randolph counties are requested to meet in convention on the first Saturday in June, at Liberty, Randolph county, instead of the third Saturday in May, to put in nomination a candidate for the Senate, who will support for Governor Mr. Holden, endorsing the great principles of Gov. Brown and Vice President Stephen's of Georgia.
May 16-td

To the People of North-Carolina.—In compliance with the wishes of many friends, I announce myself a candidate for the office of Governor of North-Carolina, at the election to be held on the first Thursday in August next.

My principles and views, as a Conservative "after the straitest sect," are well known to the people of the State. These principles and views are what they have been.—They will not be changed.

I am not disposed, at a time like this, to invite the people from their employments, and add to the excitement which prevails in the public mind, by haranguing them for their votes. We need all our energies to meet the common enemy, and to provide means of subsistence for our troops in the field and the people at home. Let the people go calmly and firmly to the polls and vote for the men of their choice. I will cheerfully abide their decision, whatever it may be.

If elected I will do every thing in my power to promote the interests, the honor and the glory of North-Carolina, and to secure an honorable peace.

March 4 td W. W. HOLDEN.
Hillsboro' Recorder, Salem Press, Greensborough Patriot, and Henderson Times will please copy till day of election, and forward accounts.

To the Voters of Old Lenoir.—Fellow Citizens and Brother Soldiers:—Through the request of many friends in and out of the army I take this method of announcing myself as a candidate for the Sheriffalty of your county. If I should be so fortunate as to be your choice on the first Thursday in August next I assure you that all business in my hands shall be attended to promptly, justly and impartially, should I be so fortunate as to escape the hands of death during the coming campaign. I am truly in hopes to hear of a nice majority in favor of your obedient servant on the first Thursday in August next.

I am, very respectfully,
Your son and brother
Of Old Lenoir County,
R. B. VAUSE,
May 12-d&wtd 2d Lt. Co. A, 40th Reg't N. C. T.
